

November 2010

"The Art Show", oil, by Kristin Simanek. Exhibited and sold at the FCAA Cultural Arts Center show in October.

From the President

It's that time again. The FCAA will hold the election for officers at the Monday, November 8th meeting. The slate for candidates is:

President: Patrick Hiatt (incumbent)
 1st Vice President: Maryann Pranulis (incumbent)
 2nd Vice President: Karen Peacock
 Treasurer: Jeff Gere (incumbent)
 Recording Secretary: Peter Plant (incumbent)
 Correspondence Secretary: Kristin Simanek (incumbent)

Nominations will remain open until the vote.

The FCAA now has its own web domain name and a new website has been established to provide a fully functional platform on which we can grow. Over the next few months we hope to develop a useful website for our members. It is important in this day and age that we use the new tools available to us for getting out the word. Please help support this effort. Your comments will be greatly appreciated.

The website address is <http://www.fcaamd.org>

The new website also supports a robust e-mail system which will make it easier for us to handle association correspondence and group mailing. Examples of the new addresses now available are president@fcaamd.org and treasure@fcaamd.org. I will announce all of the new addresses as soon as they are loaded and fully functional. This will also make it easier for the board to pass on association business to future board members.

I have to applaud the existing board members for their dedication and contributions and if elected for another term I am looking forward to working with the them and all the members for another year of FCAA success.

I would like to thank Bill O'Donnell for his outstanding work in presenting the FCAA show at the Frederick Cultural Arts Center. The Opening was well attended, we made some good sales and everyone had a great time. The staff at the FCAC also needs a hand of applause for their support of the FCAA and the opportunity to exhibit or work.

Patrick Hiatt, President

Supplies to Sell

If anyone needs frames for oils or acrylics, I have an oversupply accumulated over many years, and need to reduce the inventory because of space problems! There are many 16"x20" and 18"x24" wood with antique gold finish. Most but not all have linen liners. There are a few 20"x24" and other sizes. I would be glad to sell them for half their original price. Please call me at 301-299-6176, or e-mail nlheindl@gmail.com. I am just south of Rockville. Nancy Heindl is proud to present oil paintings by Barbara Kenny during November. A prolific artist, Kenny's work has been well-received in Frederick since her move to this city in 2005. She has been accepted into many juried shows and won awards frequently. Kenny's sensitive paintings express the joy she finds in creating them. Whether representing nature or abstract and non-objective subjects, the artist hopes to draw the viewer in and so to interpret the experience for her or himself.

The Blanche Ames Gallery

The public is invited to an opening reception on Sunday, November 7, 12:30 – 2:30 p.m. in the gallery, housed in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation, 4880 Elmer Derr Road, Frederick 21703. Take the Mt. Zion exit off 15/340 South, turn left onto Cap Stine to cross the highway and immediately turn right (SW) onto Elmer Derr for about 1 mile. Call 301-473-7680, for directions and weekday hours, usually T – F, 9:30 - 5.

Holiday Party in December

Mark your calendar for the 2010 FCAA Holiday Party. The party will be held in the Margaret Gardiner Pavilion at the Delaplaine Center -- our usual monthly meeting place -- Monday, December 13, at 6:30 pm.

The FCAA will be providing a ham as a main dish. Soft drinks and coffee will also be provided. The balance of the menu will be members' potluck. Each member should bring a tasty appetizer, side dish, a favorite covered dish, or a dessert to share.

Of course, many volunteer elves will be needed to pitch in and help with logistics to make this year's party match the success of holiday parties past. Help will be needed with decorating, food setup, auction table helpers, and of course cleanup. Watch your e-mail for a request for elves soon. A sign-up sheet will also be on hand at the November 8 monthly meeting. Meanwhile, if anyone has ideas to offer please feel free to contact me at ron.roos@hotmail.com.

The always popular holiday party auction will be featured again this year. Jeff Gere has already offered to handle the auction as in the past. But it is up to you, the FCAA members, to donate the auction items. With your donations of great stuff to the auction table lots of tickets will be sold at the party. And that in turn will mean a hearty injection of funds to support our Student Art Awards Program.

Merrily yours,
Ron Roos
